

Opportunities for oral rehearsal, shared writing and exposure to good models of writing should be evident throughout the teaching sequence.

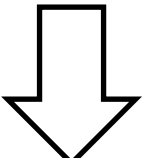

Immersion in the key text type with a focus on purpose and audience

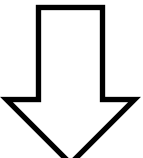

Key SPAG concepts taught linked to the text type.

Children plan their own version of the text type.

Independent write where children can demonstrate the ability to apply learnt SPAG concepts.

Opportunities for editing and re-drafting based on teacher feedback or self/peer assessment.